

Milk: From the Dairy to your Door

Milk Production Flow Chart Questions

Name _____

1. What are the two items a dairy cow produces?
 - a. Milk and Hay
 - b. Milk and Manure
 - c. Corn and Manure
 - d. Cotton Seeds and Calves

2. After the processing plant where are the dairy products taken?
 - a. Home
 - b. Grocery Store
 - c. Farm
 - d. Dairy

3. When does milk production begin according to the flow chart?
 - a. Farm
 - b. Processing Plant
 - c. Cow
 - d. Grocery Store

4. What is one thing we can use manure for?
 - a. To fertilize crops
 - b. We cannot use manure
 - c. To feed to the cows
 - d. To use at the processing plant

5. What are the three main ingredients included in a cows healthy diet?
 - a. Rolled Corn, Apples, and Cotton Seeds
 - b. Grapes, Lettuce, and Hay
 - c. Hay, Rolled Corn, and Carrots
 - d. Rolled Corn, Cotton Seeds, and Hay

6. What is the last step in Milk Production?
 - a. To send the milk to the processing plant
 - b. To deliver the milk to the grocery store
 - c. To use the manure to make energy and fertilizer
 - d. To give to the calves to drink

7. At the processing plant what takes place?
 - a. Milk is pasteurized
 - b. Milk is put into bottles and sealed
 - c. Milk is labeled

- d. All of the above processes take place at the processing plant
8. Which one of these options best lists the steps in the milk production flow chart?
- a. Farm, Feed, Dairy, Cow, Manure
 - b. Dairy, Cow, Milk, Processing Plant, Dairy Products, Grocery Store, Home
 - c. Cow, Feed, Manure, Fertilizer
 - d. Dairy Products, Milk, Cow, Processing Plant
9. Which of these best summarizes the Milk Production Flow Chart?
- a. Cows produce milk that can be made into dairy products and manure that can be used for energy and fertilizer.
 - b. Cows live on a Dairy. They eat cotton seeds, rolled corn and hay to obtain the vitamins and nutrients needed to produce milk.
 - c. The milk travels from the processing plant to the grocery store where we can buy it.
 - d. A heifer does not become a cow until she gives birth to a calf then she can make milk.
10. The main purpose of this chart is to
- a. Encourage people to become dairy famers
 - b. Show how milk travels from the cow to the grocery store
 - c. Show that manure can be used as fertilizer
 - d. Encourage children to drink milk